Subject: iLearning Global Warning

Email:

Hi,

Ron here. I hope you found the report on marketing iLearning Global useful.

You might not have read it all yet, so let me warn you of the most important factor in your success. You have to join a strong, active group of independent marketers if you want results.

The whole thing is structured so that you make more money by making the people below you more successful. Don't you want the strongest people above you since they have a financial incentive to make you more successful?

Hey - if this opportunity is not right for you, do not join.

What I am saying is, if it is a good fit for you, join the best group possible. Someone that demonstrates domination of search engines. Someone that is taking it seriously. Someone that is going to give you free access to videos and more tools to help you grow your down line.

In case you did not guess it, the above description refers to me.

If you are ready to join, visit www.liquidlearning.com/ilearning-global

If you want to discuss it, reply to this email and let me know a good time that we can talk. Include your phone number.

I am not being too heavy-handed am I?

Have a wonderful day.

Subject: The Bad thing about iLearning Global...

Email:

In a continuing effort to help you be successful with iLearning Global, let me tell you something that is bad about it.

Rarely do people sign up without kicking the tires and getting to know the independent marketer.

The goal of your Internet Marketing effort for iLearning Global is NOT to sell the product directly. It is to help people find you, get to know you and trust you. If someone decides you are someone they would like to work with, THEN they might just give this crazy thing a try.

So what do you need to do?

#1 Be famous.

#2 Not Famous? Then build a process that collects names (emails) and builds your reputation automatically.

This simple group of emails is an example. If we are helping you this much for free, imagine how much we would be helping you if we had something to gain.

If you have not joined iLearning Global yet, keep in mind that it is the same price no matter who you buy it from. But the person you buy it from can really influence your income earning potential.

For example, our down line gets to reuse our free report and these auto-responder messages. Imagine how much faster you will start building your down line without needing to do that work yourself.

If you want to join a group that cares about your success and not just you as another number, sign up at www.liquidlearning.com/ilearning-global

Have a wonderful day,

Subject: Your Smart - You saw this coming

Email:

Thank you for signing up and opening these emails.

I hope the marketing tips to be more successful with iLearning Global have been helpful.

This is the last automated email you will get. I will still send out occasional marketing tips and announcements to this list, but we are not giving away any more big marketing secrets unless you are in our down line.

Our members have access to our private marketing center and see this:

It would just be unfair to our active members if we helped other people compete with our associates too much. We all share marketing results and tips with each other, so the wealth of information for people serious about using the Internet to market iLearning Global is valuable and growing every day.

I am happy to discuss iLearning Global with you if you still have not made the decision. Just reply to this email and let me know the best way and time to reach you.

If you are ready to move forward, here is the link one more time:
